15 Personal safety mistakes we always make

Trusting a door chain lock

Not calling police during emergency

Leaving medication open in the house

Keeping your car key far while sleeping

Revealing sensitive information over calls

Not keeping any emergency supply in home

Leaving washroom floor wet after using it

Not using remote wipe for your smartphone

Having conversation with wrong number callers

Using sensitive personal information in public place

Sharing a lot of information and pictures on social media

Not using any kind of security system for home protection

Setting GPS location in mobile phone to actual home address

Not doing any thorough background check while renting property

Not putting tissues in peepholes to avoid unwanted staring during hotel stay
